The Sentinel is not responsible for the views of its correspondents.

We used to know a fat man named Poore.

Got your school books together yet, boys?

With watermelons selling at a "jit" each, we should worry.

The Ladies' Home Journal for August contained $188,000 worth of advertising.

Acting on the Gaffney Ledger's advice, we tried Richmond and hereby find it guilty.

The Greenville Piedmont says there'll be a Bolt in the next legislature—from Pickens county.

DeCamp, of the Gaffney Ledger, wants to lynch us because we said we would like to see the guy who put the "pa" in newspaper.

What has become of the old fashioned child who used to make a hole in a biscuit with its finger and put molasses in the hole?

Somebody has suggested that the Pickens railroad should also open up a tailoring establishment, since it already has the Taylor and Jeans.

Roses are red and violets are blue, come in and see if your subscription's not due.—Pickens Sentinel. Pansy-tinted pink and banana bunk, child, get the bromo, editor's drunk.—Seneca Farm and Factory. Yes, banana bunk, your poetry's punk; we hope, however, you're over your

We believe Harry Thaw is in Pickens, or at least we think he had a hand in writing that poetry in last week's Journal—Farm and Factory. As there is no paper published in Pickens by the name of the Journal, we suppose Phillips refers to The Sentinel. However, we'll excuse him this time and hope his bromo has had the desired effect ere this.

PARAGRAPHS FROM EXCHANGES

Made Him Thirsty.

That piece of poetry on the "Moon" in The Pickens Sentinel last week reminds us of "moonshine."—Easley Progress

Foolish Question

What it takes to feed a crowd Oolenoy has got it.—Pickens Sentinel. But why should a crowd want to go to Oolenoy?—Greenville Piedmont.

Four of Them

To show you that the world is advancing we would call your attention to the fact that an educational rally was held in Pickens county last week.—Greenville Piedmont.

Always Have It

The Pickens Sentinel remarks that what it takes to feed a crowd "Oolenoy has got it." Probably the reason it has got is that it has not had to feed crowds in the past.—Greenville Piedmont.

The Pickens Sentinel has declared war on bottling plants in general. We would suggest first that they seize on the plant that made Milwaukee famous and see what good they can do.—Gaffney Ledger. Couldn't put us next as to how we could "seize on" it, could you?—Pickens Sentinel.—Try Richmond.—Gaffney Ledger.

"Young Man is Killed by Falling Limb."—Headline. We noticed the other day, too, that a young lady's rib was broken by and entwined limb.—Pickens Sentinel. Be ashamed.—Easley Progress. We fail to see why we should be ashamed! The limb that caused the accident doesn't belong to us.—Pickens Sentinel. On the level, wouldn't that get your goat?—Farm and Factory.

Take the Drudgery out of Housekeeping

"Blithe as a bee, with busy care, She's here, she's there, she's everywhere, Long ere the clock has struck for noon Home chords of toil are all in tune; And from each richly bounteous hour She drains its use, as bees a flower."

So sings Paul Hamilton Hayne of "The Farmer's Wife," and his portrait is a much truer one than that of the "uplifters" and philanthropists who picture the farm woman as a poor, lonely, broken creature, crushed by neglect, isolation and ceaseless drudgery.

But while the poet's picture is nearer the truth, it is not the exact statement of facts it should be. We must all admit if we are honest, that there are entirely too many farm women who are lonely and overworked and that even the typical farm woman lacks many of the comforts, conveniences and labor-saving devices she should have. Occasionally some country woman takes her pen and draws a telling contrast between the farmer's abundant and often neglected—supply of labor-saving tools, and inefficient, out-of-date equipment with which his wife is expected to work; and there is often good reasons for such contrasts.

All this should be changed. One of the best things that could happen in most farm homes would be for the farmer and the housekeeper to get together and see just what could be done to improve the conditions under which the housekeeper works and to make her work count for more. We feel sure that in nine cases out of ten the family is financially able to lighten the work of housekeeping to a degree the man of the house—possibly the woman herself—has never dreamed of. Right here is a wonderful opportunity for a little team work to do great things.

We do not attempt to say what equipment the housekeeper needs—with one exception. We are sure that she needs a system of home waterworks, so that she will be forever rid of the labor of carrying water and of the inconvenience of bathing in the wash-tub.

We know that numbers of our readers are putting in such systems of home water supply; but we are confident that for every farmer who has put in home waterworks there are a dozen amply able to provide such equipment this very fall, to their immediate satisfaction and to the ultimate financial benefit of the whole family.

We commend to the attention of all readers the following statement of President Joe Cook, of the Mississippi Normal College:

"The getting of the water from the source of supply to the point of application requires more manual labor than any other item of housekeeping. The water for the kitchen has to be lifted from the well, carried to the kitchen, poured into a kettle, poured out of the kettle into the dishpan, and from the dishpan out of doors. This makes six times the water is handled; and a bucket of water containing two gallons, with the containing vessel, will weigh twenty pounds. When this is handled six times, the total lifting is 120 pounds. The cooking of three meals a day on a meager allowance of water will necessitate ten buckets, which will make for cooking alone 1,200 pounds of lifting per day. When to this is added the water necessary for bathing, scrubbing and the weekly wash, it will easily bring the lift per day to a ton.

"An isolated farm can be supplied with a system of waterworks for an outlay of about $250; pump, $25; gasoline engine, $40; tank, $20; bathtub, $20; commode, $20; kitchen sink $4; basin, $4; 500 feet of pipe, $40; valves add installation, $75. These figures are for first-class porcelain-lined fixtures; cheaper can had."

If these figures are correct—and every one must admit that they are reasonable—they make it clear that for the ordinary farm family a system of home waterworks would be one of the most profitable investments that could be made.—Progressive Farmer.

A Tried and Proved Guarantee

Man Bought a Bottle of Dodson's Liver Tone, Then Took It Back and Asked for His Money and Got It

A man recently tried out the guarantee which Pickens Drug Co. gives with every bottle of Dodson's Liver Tone. He bought a bottle and then went back to the drug store and said the medicine hadn't helped him. This druggist just reached into his cash register and took out a half dollar, the price of the bottle of Liver Tone, and handed it back to the gentleman. But he didn't take the money. He owned up that he was just trying the guarantee and, as a matter of fact, he had found Dodson's Liver Tone the best remedy for constipation and biliousness he had ever tried. "Why," he said, "my wife wouldn't be without a bottle in the house for anything. It's the best thing in the world for the whole family, and the medicine that I prefer to take or to give to my children for a lazy liver."

Pickens Drug Co. sell Dodson's Liver Tone and guarantee it to start the liver without violence. It is taking the place of calomel everywhere. If you buy a bottle and don't find this pleasant-tasting vegetable liquid the best thing to start a lazy liver, he will hand your money back with a smile. Adv.

Diarrhoea Quickly Cured.

"I was taken with diarrhoea and Mr. Yorks, the merchant here, persuaded me to try a bottle of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy. After taking one dose of it I was cured. It also cured others that I gave it to," writes M. E. Gebhart, Oriole, Pa. That is not at all unusual. An ordinary attack of diarrhoea can almost invariably be cured by one or two doses of this remedy. For sale by all dealers. Adv.

A Trip to Glassy Mountain.

Besides the beautiful farms and other pleasing landscapes of which Pickens county can boast, it has Glassy Mountain near its seat, which is a place of magnificent scenery.

Its scenes have offered pleasing sights to the people from long ago, till the present time, but to none like the young people who passed thru Pickens Saturday morning and by the directions of Miss Effie Gilstrap of whose presence all were proud, on to the farm of Hon. Mr. Freeman, where the wagon was stopped and dinner, which had been prepared by the loving hands of the ladies, was served with much merriment.

After such a refreshment it is needless to say that every heart was light and every person gay. Misses May Freeman, Effie Gilstrap, Martha Clyde, Mary Clyde, Mattie Graham and Lula Nobles roamed and climbed over the hill, accompanied by Messrs. Larry Gilstrap, John Clyde, Ralph Gilstrap, Charlie Graham and Edgar Clyde, gazing upon every scene of the place.

After leaving the wagon all went into the light house, then only a part of the number would venture to see the dark house, while others gazed upon and conversed of the visible landscapes.

After roaming almost entirely over the hill and viewing the scenes of nature all returned to their homes with glad hearts and fond memories of the day. XX.

So far none of the Atlanta papers have printed a picture of the bootblack who used to shine the shoes of Frank's great grandfather's uncle.—Pickens Sentinel. Not yet but soon.—Gaffney Ledger.
